

CARTOON NETWORK AUGUST HIGHLIGHTS

CLARENCE

BRAND NEW EPISODES

WEEKDAYS, 4:00PM FROM AUGUST 4, as part of Laughternoons

CLARENCE celebrates the best of childhood: epic dirt fights, awkward crushes, trampoline combat, sleepover pranks and secret tree forts! And it does so through the eyes of Clarence, a spirited, quirky boy who sees the best in all things.

STEVEN UNIVERSE

BRAND NEW EPISODES

WEEKDAYS, 6:35PM FROM JULY 31, as part of Laughternoons

With the help of his Crystal Gem friends, Steven Universe embarks on incredible adventures to try and protect the world from his own kind.

This month, Steven visits a special zoo while the Gems try to pull off a heist! Lion coughs up a magical key, so Steven goes on a quest to find out what it unlocks. If that's not enough, people start to go missing from Beach City – can Steven solve the mystery before it's too late?

CN COLLECT-A-THON

NEW EPISODES

WEEKENDS, 10:00AM FROM AUGUST 5

Collecting the swords of Mighty Magiswords via MagiMobie app has become a national pastime, and with the CN Collect-A-Thon, kids across Australia can collect all the swords they missed – or level up the ones they already have.

Different swords will be featured every half hour from 10am – 4pm on weekends during marathons of your favourite Cartoon Network shows. Best of all, brand new TV specials will kick off the marathons every weekend, with new episodes of We Bare Bears, The Powerpuff Girls, Adventure Time and Steven Universe!

TRANSFORMERS ROBOTS IN DISGUISE

BRAND NEW EPISODES

WEEKENDS, 8:25AM FROM AUGUST 5

When a Cybertronian prison ship crashes on Earth, a new team of Autobots, led by Bumblebee, arrives to protect the planet -- and the galaxy -- from hundreds of escaped Deception fugitives! Following a mysterious message from another dimension, this ragtag band of heroes learns to trust and fight alongside one another, and begins to suspect the crash might not have been an accident -- but only the beginning of a larger, much more sinister plan!
